Candidates must be between the ages of 24 and 40, single, or widows without children, and be prepared, in a national emergency, to serve at home or abroad. Candidates will be enrolled for a period of three years, which may be extended from time to time, and when mobilised will be eligible for promotion. When called up for service members will be issued with an allowance to cover the cost of providing and maintaining uniform and will be entitled to receive pay ranging from £80 a year in the case of a staff nurse to £140 in the case of a senior sister. In addition, an allowance is issuable to cover washing and board and, where quarters, fuel, etc., are not available, allowances in lieu are payable.

Membership does not entail any period of annual training, but arrangements will be made to enable members to do duty in a Royal Air Force Hospital for a week or a fortnight if they wish. Regulations of entry and application forms may be obtained on application to the Matron-in-Chief, Princess Mary's Royal Air Force Nursing Service, Air Ministry, Astra House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2.
